

Adventure Safety Accreditation Fees

Accreditation with Viristar adds value. It sends a signal that your program meets a high standard of risk management.

The complete fee schedule is described below. These fees may change.

To apply for accreditation, a program must provide payment of the appropriate application fees with submission of an application.

All fees are non-refundable, regardless of the accreditation decision. Fees are listed in US dollars (USD).

Initial Application Fee 295

Site Visit Fee Approximately 4,000 – 6,000

The site visit happens once during initial accreditation and once during each re-accreditation process (unless, in very rare instances, repeat site visits are required).

The site visit fee covers all administrative costs and direct expenses, including reviewer travel and accommodation, for the site visit. The exact fee varies depending on travel expenses or special circumstances such as visits to multiple sites.

Viristar makes reasonable and diligent efforts to economize on site visit expenses wherever possible.

Late Fee 150

For annual reports, re-accreditation self-evaluation reports, and fees over two weeks late without formal extension request.

Administrative Fees

Additional administrative fees may be assessed if:

1. An inordinate amount of Viristar staff or Accreditation Council time or resources are needed to help an organization prepare for accreditation;
2. The organization requests an application extension;
3. The organizational self-evaluation or supporting documentation are incomplete or inadequate, requiring a delay in the site visit;
4. A site visit is delayed or rescheduled at the request of the organization;
5. Accreditation is deferred by Viristar for any reasonable cause;
6. An additional site visit is deemed necessary by Viristar, or
7. Any significant delay occurs in an organization's accreditation or re-accreditation.

Contact Viristar for custom pricing on accreditation of multiple entities or operators under the same corporate group, agency or umbrella institution.
